- Division of Parole and Probation (DPP) Interstate Compact Administrator Lashonda Lee-Campbell addressed the Commission:

Offenders interested in Interstate Compact should submit an out of state home plan to their case manager.

The accepting state has 45 days to respond to a request after it has been submitted. If an offender is released prior to being approved to live in the accepting state they must report to a DPP office in Maryland.

If DPP submits a violation report for an offender with new criminal charges the Commission is required to issue a fully extraditable warrant.

The warrant will be entered into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database with a no bond alert and a nationwide pick-up radius.

- Chairman Blumberg is scheduled to meet with Collaborative Offender Management Enforcement Treatment (COMET) administrators and agents on April 22, 2020.
- David Green is now the assistant warden at Jessup Correctional Institution (JCI).
- Hearsay is admissible during a revocation hearing so long as it is probative, reliable and credible.
