

VINE is a free service that allows you to anonymously check an offender's custody, court case, and protective order status by phone, website, or mobile app (where available). You can also register to receive automated notifications about changes in custody, court case and protective order status by phone, email, text, or in-app. TTY service for people with hearing loss is also available.

Write down the following information, remove this panel, and keep it in a safe place:

Custody Information

Offender Name

Offender Number

Your four-digit PIN

Court Case Information

Defendant Name

Case Number

Your four-digit PIN

Protective Order Information

Respondent Name

Protective Order Number

Your four-digit PIN

How to Use VINE:

- If you feel you are in danger, call 911 immediately.
- VINE is confidential. The offender/defendant/respondent will not know you are registered with this service.
- VINE provides information on offender custody, court case, and protective order status in Maryland.
- VINE notifies automatically when the offender custody, court case or protective order status changes. You may get a notification from VINE in the middle of the night.
- Write down your PIN and keep it in a safe place. For safety reasons, do not share this information with others.
- If you do not answer a notification call, a message will be left and additional attempts will continue to be made for a minimum of 24 hours, or until you enter your PIN.
- Do not register a phone number that rings to a switchboard.
- You can register multiple phone numbers and email addresses for notifications.
- If you forget your PIN, call the toll-free number and press zero. You will be transferred to an operator who can help you reset your PIN, or cancel the notification.
- Operators are available 24/7 to assist you.

IMPORTANT!

IF YOUR PHONE NUMBER OR EMAIL CHANGES, IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to call the Equifax Customer First Center at 1-866-634-8463, or go to www.vinelink.com and follow the instructions on how to change your phone, text, or email registration. Unless you update your information, we will be unable to contact you when necessary.
